

C2FM quotes

“It’s amazing how much I can save when I’m not paying for something I bought a year ago.”

— Pastor B.

My C2FM coach helped with the emotional part of managing money: I came to realize I was making the problem bigger in my head. I feel much better now that I have set priorities and have a plan.

— Pastor S.

I was drowning in debt. Thanks to C2FM, I am now swimming in savings!”

— Pastor A.

C2FM has greatly impacted my personal and family life... receiving a grant gave us the momentum to keep following through.”

— Pastor J.

As I continue using the services of C2FM, I’m excited to see the effects it has on my church as they learn and discover what I have learned. It is beyond amazing to see how God multiplies the blessings.”

— Pastor M.

purpose

our purpose is serving pastors

The Clergy & Church Financial Ministry (C2FM) was established to improve financial literacy, leadership, discipleship, and ministry in our clergy and congregations.

C2FM addresses economic challenges affecting clergy

- Clergy well-being grants for financial challenges
- Educational programs and workshops designed for personal and congregational flourishing
- Free financial coaching and assistance in developing personalized financial plans

from financial stress to financial well-being

Congregations benefit from C2FM through stronger pastoral leaders as well as direct financial ministry programs including Saving Grace and Financial Peace University. Focusing on biblically-based financial teaching resources for church members and the community, these programs are ministry tools for guiding God's people into financial well-being.

grants

clergy well-being grants

Financial assistance is available to Missouri United Methodist pastors to relieve financial stress and achieve personal financial goals. Examples of C2FM grants include:

- student loan debt assistance
- consumer debt assistance
- moving expenses
- 529 education plan
- health/household emergency assistance, pandemic related assistance, and more

The first step to receive a grant is to fill out the C2FM Clergy Well-Being Grant Application.

Visit mumf.org/c2fm to download the C2FM Clergy Well-Being Grant Application.

seminary support

C2FM offers support in the form of a grant for qualified students in seminary pursuing ordination with the Missouri Conference.

free one-on-one coaching

Financial coaches are available at no cost to discuss a wide range of financial needs from budget reviews and retirement options to debt review and full financial overhaul.

services

your money line

Every United Methodist pastor (and family) appointed in the Missouri Conference has FREE access to a personal Financial Concierge at Your Money Line. Your Money Line gives pastors ready access to a network of financial problem-solving resources, financial professionals, and services, including personalized assistance with applying for Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF).
